

Traditional Games at the GTC Annual General Assembly, August 13 and 15, 2007

Team GTC - skippered by Captain F. Carmichael and Bosun M. Clark - is pitted against Team Tsiigehtchic in the first heat.

Team Tetlit Zheh contemplates their lost against Team Inuvik.

Traditional Games at the GTC Annual General Assembly, August 13 and 15, 2007

Despite 3 lighters, Chief Firth breathing new life into the fire, and help from a young spectator (bottom left), Team Tetlit Zheh just couldn't catch up to Team Inuvik in the tea boiling contest. Spectators viewing the 9-bag Tim Horton steeped tea from Team Tsiigehtchic (bottom right).

Traditional Games at the GTC Annual General Assembly, August 13 and 15, 2007

Feathers were just-a flyin' when John Itsi (Team Tsiigehtchic) got "down" to it in the geese plucking contest....

Eleanor Firth (Team Tetlit Zeh)

Mary Ann Ross and Vincent

Traditional Games at the GTC Annual General Assembly, August 13 and 15, 2007

Dennis Bevington, MP Western Arctic (Team GTC), brings new meaning to "Tent in Session"

Traditional Games at the GTC Annual General Assembly, August 13 and 15, 2007

Bakery Chef Mavis Clark of Team GTC (left) shows off her world-famous Bannock a la Charcoal while MP Dennis Bevington (above) attempts to rescue the Mavis Timbits.

Mavis' secret ingredient: Muskol

Former Chief Peter Ross of Team Tsiigehtchic (bottom right) enjoys retirement while Louisa Kay of Team Tet-lit Zheh (bottom left) mixes ingredients with a smile.

Traditional Games at the GTC Annual General Assembly, August 13 and 15, 2007

Things heating up at the Indian Bingo - oops, Aboriginal Game of Chance!

Peace officers and Chief Wilbert Firth (bottom) were on hand to make sure Louisa Kay (right) received the right amount of birthday bumps.

