

MUSKRAT JAMBOREE 50TH ANNIVERSARY

All photos by Lawrence Norbert / Gwich'in Tribal Council

First evening, there was the crowning of the 50th Muskrat Jamboree Queen, Ms. Erin Simon, who raised over $18-K.

Then it was a sit-down meal for the whole community.

That was followed by some crazy activities...is that Georgie Greenland trying to blow bubble gum?

The evening ended with a jigging contest plus an old-time dance—WAY-HO!!

Inuvik NWT, April 5-9, 2007

All photos by Lawrence Norbert / Gwich'in Tribal Council

Day 2
William Greenland showed the new log-sawing technique

MUSKRAT JAMBOREE 50TH ANNIVERSARY

All photos by Lawrence Norbert / Gwich'in Tribal Council

Day 3: an inspirational display of endurance by 5-year-old Jarvis Mitchell in the Men's Snowshoe Race plus a show of "Community Policing".

Inuvik NWT, April 5-9, 2007

All photos by Lawrence Norbert / Gwich'in Tribal Council

Day 4: there was even a surprise appearance by William "Jole Blon" Francis at the talent show

MUSKRAT JAMBOREE 50TH ANNIVERSARY

All photos by Lawrence Norbert / Gwich'in Tribal Council

Day 5: DFO was out checking the fish stock; Larry Greenland had to perform his community service hours (making coffee for certain Federal public servants; Melba Mitchell made Ban-nock Flambé; and the sun was set when the closing ceremonies began...

Inuvik NWT, April 5-9, 2007

All photos by Lawrence Norbert / Gwich'in Tribal Council

'Mahsi Cho!' and 'Quyainniinn!' to the MJ Committee for an eventful weekend (and also to the Easter Bunny for showing up!).

